Leading Teacher Development

For teachers who have, or are aspiring to have, responsibilities for leading the development of other teachers in their school. They may have responsibilities for the development of all teachers across a school or specifically trainees or teachers who are early in their career.

- Our content is developed by school leaders and domain specialists. We utilise a strong evidence base to provide materials designed to enhance your knowledge and skill
- Our programmes are expertly facilitated by experienced school and HEI leaders who contextualise the materials to respond to your local context
- You'll access an excellent online learning platform, making your learning accessible anytime, anywhere
- We provide a personal, friendly and professional service operating in over 69 local authorities and across 25 countries

What will I study?

This course will equip you with the knowledge and skills to make evidence informed decisions about school leadership. You will be confident in leading others to develop their practice, and skilled at implementing sustainable change across a range of areas like classroom practice, behaviour and culture, organisational management and working in partnership with others.

How will I study?

Our courses offer a blend of approaches to study:

- ▶ Face to face facilitated workshops
- ▶ Online facilitated live webinars
- ▶ Online study, including engagement with research, opportunities to tackle scenarios, individually reflect and collectively contribute to discussion activities
- ▶ Work with a coach

What is it like to do this course?

"The learning scenarios allow me to discuss elements of good practice with my school leadership and to quote exemplars and expectations from the course. I spend time on the self-directed learning materials and take the research and reading from these to school."
